

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF WILLIAM SMITH AND AGNES RAMADGE

Mary Smith was born in about 1720 of Newlands, Peeblesshire, Scotland. No christening record has been found for her, but the only Smith family shown having children in Newlands parish in the right time period were William Smith and Agnes Ramadge, who married in Newlands 11 June 1725. William and Agnes are most likely Mary's parents.

William Smith married in 1725, so was likely born between 1690 and 1707. Two Smiths have children christened in this time period. There is no christening record for William.

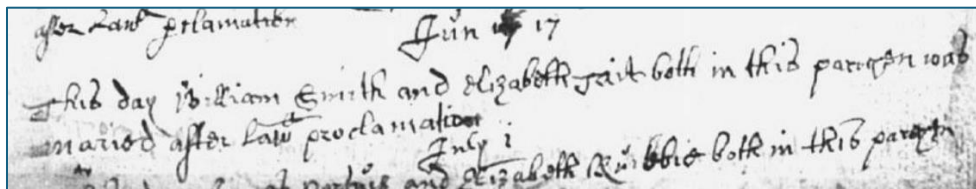

- John Smith had a daughter Elizabeth christened in 1698 in Newlands. John had no other children christened in Newlands.
- William Smith had a daughter Agnis christened in 1707 in Newlands. William Smith married Elizabeth Tait 17 June 1703 in Newlands, so likely had a child in 1704, unrecorded. This may be our William, who would be about 21 years old at his marriage to Agnes Ramadge.
