

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF THOMAS WILSON AND AGNES GROZER

Thomas Wilson was born in about 1630 of Dalkeith, the son of George Wilson and Bessie Johnstoun. Thomas married Agnes Grozer 26 January 1655 in Dalkeith.

*Marriage record for Thomas Wilson and Agnes Grozer in Dalkeith:
"Desember 19, Thomas Wilson & Agnes Grosert both in this parish gave up their bands matrimoniell before the sessions prayid acording to order maried January 26 1655"*

George and William Wilson were witnesses at the baptisms of Thomas' children, and Thomas was often a witness for their children. At the christening of George's daughter Margaret in 1655 the witnesses were George Wilson gatcher or gutcher (a Scottish word for grandfather) and Thomas Wilson unkill (uncle). So George and Thomas were the sons of George. William was also likely another brother.

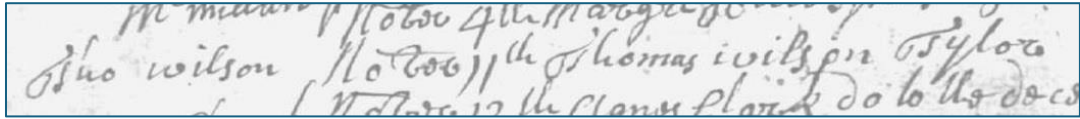

*Christening record for Margaret Wilson in Dalkeith in 1655:
"Eodem die was bapt Margt Wilson par George Wilson & Agnis Howeine wit/ George Wilson gatcher Thomas Wilson unkill"*

Dalkeith Church

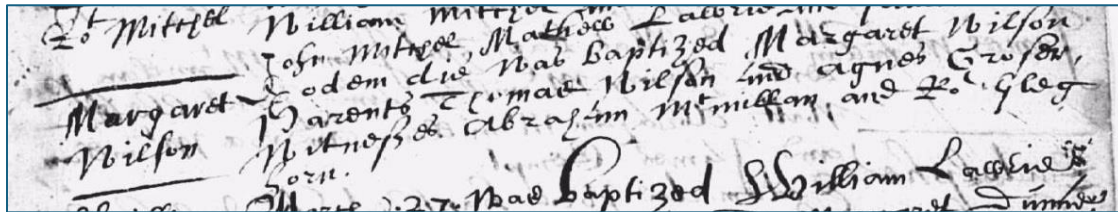

Thomas died and was buried 11 November 1713 in Dalkeith. Thomas' occupation is shown as taylor (tailor).

*Burial record for Thomas Wilson in Dalkeith:
"Novemb 11th Thomas Wilson Tylor"*

Thomas and Agnes had the following children:

1. Janet, (twin), christened 23 February 1656 in Dalkeith. (George Wilson and William Wilson were witnesses.)
2. Thomas, (twin) christened 23 February 1656 in Dalkeith. (George Wilson and William Wilson were witnesses.)
3. George, christened 14 May 1657 in Dalkeith. (George Wilson was a witness.)w
- *4. Margaret, christened 22 March 1660 in Dalkeith; married John McMillan.

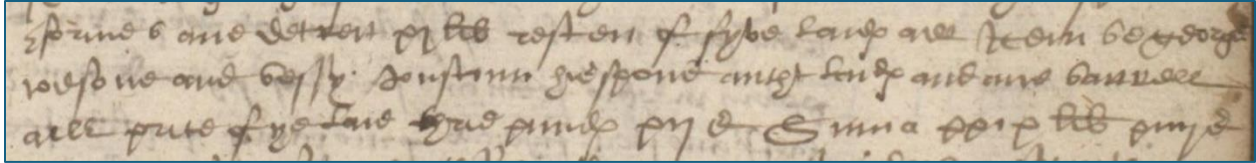

Baptism record for Margaret Wilson in Dalkeith: "Eodem die (the same day) was baptized Margaret Wilson Parents Thomas Wilson and Agnes Groser. Witnesses Abraham McMillan and Robert Gleghorn"

SOURCES: Dalkeith parish register; www.scotlandspeople.gov.uk.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF GEORGE WILSONE AND BESSIE JOHNSTOUN

George Wilsone was born in about 1590 of Dalkeith. He married Bessie Johnstoun.

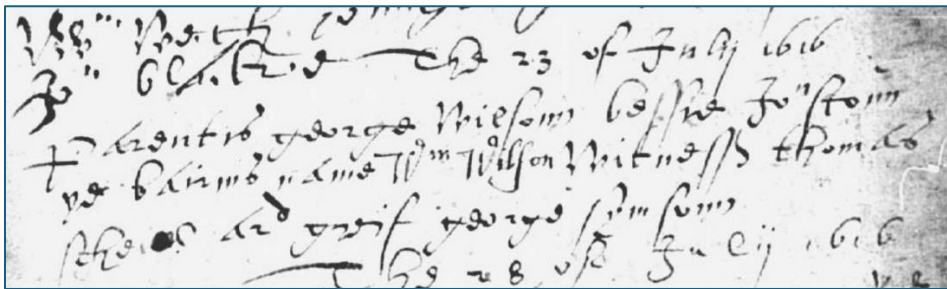

Both George Wilsone and Bessie Johnstoun were mentioned in the will (testament dative) of Thomas Wilson, "walker at the walkmyln in Dalkeith" in 1614. A walker was a fuller. George and Bessie were mentioned in the debts owed to the deceased. No relationship between Thomas and George was mentioned.

*From the testament dative of Thomas Wilsoun of Dalkeith, 1614:
"Item be George Wilsone and Bessie Jonstoun the spouse" owed Thomas a debt of three pounds*

George and Bessie had the following children:

1. William, christened 23 July 1616 in Dalkeith; married Jenet Gemill in 1642, and had children Jean, William, Archbald, Thomas and Janet.

Baptism record for William Wilsone in Dalkeith: "The 23 of July 1616 parentes George Wilsoun Bessie Jonstonn ye bairns name Wm Wilson. Witnesses Thomas Scher and greif George Simsonn"

2. Agnes, christened 18 November 1620 in Dalkeith.

3. George, born in about 1627 of Dalkeith, married Agnes Hereon or Howrin, and had children William, Margaret, Janet, Robert, George, Archibald, Alisone, and Elspeth.

*4. Thomas, born in about 1630 of Dalkeith; married Agnes Grozer 26 January 1655 in Dalkeith; occupation: tailor; buried 11 November 1713 in Dalkeith.

SOURCES: Dalkeith parish register; www.scotlandspeople.gov.uk.

Other Wilsons in Dalkeith:

- James Wilson married Jonet Hereon, and had a son William in 1621.
- David Wilson and Helene Clark had children James in 1616, John in 1620, Issobell in 1622, John in 1624, David in 1627.
- Hew Wilsoun and Bessie Moffet had a daughter Agnes in 1622.
- Johne Wilsoun of Dalkeith left a will dated 5 February 1571, naming children David, Margaret and Margery.