

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF JOHN ELYDR AND CECILY VERCH MADOG HYDDGAM

John Elydr (Elidir Ddu ap Elidyr) was born in about 1255 of Wales, the son of Elidyr ap Rhys. He married Cecily verch Madog Hyddgam.

In Einion ap Llywarch of Carmarthenshire (Wolcott) in Ancient Wales Studies, an analysis is made of four men who were called Elidyr Ddu. Joan's father is identified as Elidyr, born in 1255, the son of Elidyr.

Elidyr Ddu is the son of Elidyr ap Rhys ap Gronwy ap Einion ap Llywarch at Rhys ap Gronwy ap Einion ap Llywarch ap Rhiryd ap Mor ap Ynyr ap Pasgen.

*Pedigree of Elidyr Ddu ap Elidyr (see 1255 Elidyr II (7)
(Ancient Wales Studies)*

"(7) This Elidyr ap Elidyr was the father of 5 daughters born c. 1285/1295 (Catryn, Joan, Marged, Mallt and Gwenllian) and 3 sons born c. 1285/1295 (Adda Fawr, Ieuan Goch and Philip)...He is the most likely of our men called Elidyr Ddu to have been the man named in the 1302/03 court record mentioned earlier. He is also the Elidyr ap Elidyr cited by Peniarth 176, 318 as marrying a daughter of Madog Hyddgam". (Wolcott)

Cecily is shown as the daughter of Madog Hyddgam, the son of Madog, the son of Cadwyn, the son of Madog, the son of Cadwgan of Nannau (who was born in 1110).
