

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF EVAN AP REES

Evan ap Rees was born in about 1425, the son of Rees ap Rhydderch and Eve verch Griffith Maurice ap Howel.

Evan had the following children:

- *1. Gwenllian, born in about 1450; married Maurice ap David.

SOURCES: Heraldic Visitations of Wales and Part of the Marches.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF REES AP RHYDDERCH AND EVE VERCH GRIFFITH MAURICE AP HOWEL

Rees ap Rhydderch was born in about 1400, the son of Rhydderch and Maud Clement verch William Clement, Lord of Caron. He married Eve verch Griffith Maurice ap Howel.

Rees and Eve had the following children:

- *1. Evan

SOURCES: Heraldic Visitations of Wales and Part of the Marches.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF RHYDDERCH AP IEVAN LLOYD AND MAUD CLEMENT

Rhydderch was born in about 1375, the son of Ievan Lloyd. He married Maud Clement, the daughter of Lord William Clement. They are mentioned in a description of Glyn Aeron: "Glyn Aeron – Though now an insignificant farm-house, was formerly the residence of people of consequence in this county. Jevan ab Gruffydd was the first of Glyn Aeron. His son Jevan Lloyd succeeded to it after his death, and bequeathed it to his son Rhydderch, the poet, who married Maud, daughter of Sir William Clement, Lord of Caron." (The History and Antiquities of the County of Cardigan).

"Rhydderch ap Ievan Llwyd. The son of Ievan Llwyd of Glyn Aeron and his wife Angharad, and a noteworthy literary patron, he held local government offices in Ceredigion during the last two decades of the fourteenth century. He owned Llyfr Gwyn Rhydderch (The White Book of Rhydderch), an anthology of medieval Welsh prose that included many of the tales later anthologized as The Mabinogion." (The Poems of Dafydd ap Gwilym)

The White Book of Rhydderch

"Rhydderch was part of a dynasty with a lengthy tradition of literary patronage, and is believed to have been an authority on Welsh law." (Wales History, www.bbc.co.uk)

Rhydderch and Eve had the following children:

- *1. Rees, born in about 1400; married Eve verch Griffith Maurice ap Howell.
2. Ieuan, born 1410; was a Welsh bard; died 1440.

SOURCES: Heraldic Visitations of Wales and Part of the Marches; The History and Antiquities of the County of Cardigan, by Samuel Rush Meyrick.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF IEVAN LLOYD AND ANGHARAD

Ievan Lloyd was born in about 1350, the son of Jevan ab Gruffyd of Glyn Aeron. He married Angharad.

Ievan and Angharad had the following children:

*1. Rhydderch, born about 1375 of Glyn Aeron; married Maud Clement.

SOURCES: The History and Antiquities of the County of Cardigan, by Samuel Rush Meyrick; The Poems of Dafydd ap Gwilym