

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF JOHN GREEN AND SARAH MEREDITH

John Green is believed to be the son of William Green and Esther Bruff, christened 16 April 1770 in Trysull, Stafford, England. Extensive research in and around the parish of Claverley supports this. Trysull is a parish adjacent to the parish of Claverley, where John Green married and raised his children.

John Green married, and became a widower. He then married Sarah Meredith on 7 August 1796 in Claverley. The register reads:

Marriage record for John Green and Sarah Meredith in Claverley

August 7 1796

John Green, widower and Sarah Meredith, spinster by Thos. Shaw Hellier, Minister

Witnesses: William Crowther; Edw. Ball

The History of Claverley gives this interesting information about the marriage: "Thomas Shaw, L.L.B., assumed the name of Hellier 1786 (Shaw-Hellier of Wombourn) was also incumbent of St. John's Wolverhampton and of Tipton, signed the register once in 47 years. He paid to act in his stead curates and officiating ministers John Marsh, Richard Dovey, Henry Bromwich, Joseph Morris, and John Glover." The one time he signed the register was at the marriage of John Green and Sarah Meredith.

Sarah was christened 22 September 1760 in Worfield, the daughter of Thomas and Sarah Meredith. She had an illegitimate son prior to her marriage. He was James Redey, christened 7 May 1788 in Claverley. John and Sarah then married and had two sons. Sarah was buried on 4 April 1830 in Claverley. John was buried a few months later, on 7 August 1830 in Small Heath, Claverley.

John and Sarah had the following children:

1. John, christened 10 November 1799 in Claverley; buried 23 December 1800 in Claverley.

*2. William Henry, born 1 January 1809 in Wolverhampton, Stafford; christened in February 1809 in Penn, Stafford; married Mary Bennett Thomason on 20 July 1830 in Kingswinford, Staffordshire; died 5 December 1878 in Pleasant Grove, Utah; buried in Pleasant Grove.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF WILLIAM GREEN AND ESTHER BRUFF

William Green was christened 28 August 1723 in Trysull, the son of John Green and Elizabeth Pickton. William's parents died when he was only seven years old, and he was raised by his mother's family in Albrighton, Shropshire. William was mentioned in his uncle Peter Pickton's will of 1734 when money was left to fund an apprenticeship for then eleven year-old William: "I give and bequeath to my said dear and loving wife all the rest residue and remainder of all my goods money cattle chattles and personal estate whatsoever she paying and discharging all my debts and funeral expences and paying twenty pounds for the placing and setting out of my nephew William an apprentice to such master as shall be approved of by my executors hereafter named". William is again mentioned in the will of Peter Pickton's widow Sarah in 1740 when William was 17 years old: "I give and bequeath the remaining five pounds to William Green apprentice to Mr. Thomas Lovatt of Newcastle". There is a Thomas Lovatt who was a cooper in Newcastle under Lyme, Staffordshire, a parish about thirty miles north of Albrighton. Perhaps he was William's apprenticeship master.

William married Esther Bruff 27 August 1764 in Trysull.

Marriage record for William Green and Esther Bruff in Wombourne

William was listed in the marriage record as being of Trysull. Esther was christened 23 May 1748 in Wombourn, Staffordshire, the daughter of Sarah Bruff. William and Esther had the following children:

1. John, christened 28 March 1767 in Trysull.

*2. John, christened 16 April 1770 in Trysull.

John was a baker by occupation. A settlement certificate exists for John and Elizabeth's move from Pattingham to Trysull in 1718:

John and Elizabeth Green settlement certificate

To the church wardens & overseers of the poor of the parish of Treasel in the County of Stafford, & as well to the inhabitants thereof,

We the church wardens & overseers of the poor of the parish of Pattingham and County of Stafford who have hereunto put our hands & seals do hereby certify & owne & acknowledge John Green, baker, his wife Elizabeth and their issue to be legally settled in our parish of Pattingham aforesaid. And if the said John Green or any of his doe became pore and chargeable to the said parish of Treasel aforesaid then we will receive them into our said parish of Pattingham except he gains a settlement else where. Given under our hands & seals this 5th day of August in the fourth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord King George.

Signed & delivered in the presence of Ffrancis Taylor, Samuel White, William Dovey, churchwardens

The settlement certificate showed that they moved from Pattingham to Trysull in 1718, yet all of their children were christened in Trysull from 1712 on. In 1718, they settled in the hamlet of Seisdon, parish of Trysull.

John died and was buried 9 May 1730 in Trysull. Elizabeth "widow of John Green" died and was buried less than a month later, on 4 June 1730 in Trysull, leaving young orphaned children.

The next document, in Latin, said that Thomas and John Green of Seisdon appeared personally before the court as children of Elizabeth Green, widow, deceased. Both were minor children. At this time, Thomas was not yet eighteen years old, and John was sixteen years old. William Fradsley was named as guardian for "Johannis, Richardi, Wm, Ffrancis, Elizabethe et Marie" the children of Elizabeth Green. William Fradsley or Frodgley was Elizabeth's brother-in-law, married to Elizabeth's older sister Mary Pickton.

After the death of John and Elizabeth, the younger Green children seem to have been raised by Elizabeth's family, the Picktons. In addition to William Frodogley's guardianship, the Green children are mentioned in the wills of Mary's brother Peter Pickton, and then his wife Sarah.

In Peter's will of 1734, he mentioned: "Item I give and bequeath unto my dear & loving wife Sarah the whole paid interest increase and product of the sume of three hundred pounds now out at interest for and during the term of her natural life she maintaining my niece Elizabeth Green until she attain the age of twenty years of allowing her my said niece three pounds a year to be paid half yearly until she shall attain the said age of twenty years as a separate maintenance if my wife shall so long live and also allowing her my said niece Elizabeth Green after she shall attain the age of twenty years only forty shillings a year to be paid half yearly during my said wifes life if my said niece lives so long...Item I give and bequeath to my nieces Elizabeth and Mary Green one hundred pounds to be equally divided betwixt them Item I give and bequeth to my nephews Thomas Green John Green Richard Green William Green and ffrancis Green the sume of fifty pounds to be equally divided amongst them And it is my mind and will that if any of my nephews or nieces Greens shall happen to dye before his her or their legacys or legacy shall become due such legacy or legacys shall go to the survivors or survivor of him her or them Item I give and bequeath to my brother William Picktons child or children twenty pounds if living at my wifes decease otherwise I give and bequeath the said twenty pounds to my nephews and nieces Greens share and share alike...Item I give and bequeath to my said dear and loving wife all the rest residue and remainder of all my goods money cattle chattles and personal estate whatsoever she paying and discharging all my debts and funeral expences and paying twenty pounds for the placing and setting out of my nephew William an apprentice to such master as shall be approved of by my executors hereafter named And it is my mind and will that in case my wife sell and disposes of her goods and chattles in her life time that then in such case she shall give to my niece Elizabeth Green five pounds or the value thereof in goods or money

Signed by the above named testator & by him sealed and delivered as his act and deed and published and declared to be his testamen and last will in the presence of us who in his presence have subscribed our names or hands as witness after the testator of bequeathing his silver watch to his nephew Thomas Green and then signed dated and published".

Peter's widow Sarah also mentioned the Green children in her will written in 1738 and proven in 1740:

"Item I give and bequeath to Thomas Green of Claverley five pounds. Item I give and bequeath the remaining five pounds to William Green apprentice to Mr. Thomas Lovatt of Newcastle. And whereas my loving husband deceased did in his last will order and appoint that if I break up house or parted with my niece Elizabeth Green that then I should pay her five pounds, but as neither was done I therefore give and bequeath unto my niece Elizabeth Green ten pounds, which is placed out else where well known to my herein after named executrix. Item I alsoe give and bequeath to my niece Elizabeth Green two pieces of new stuff to maker her two new beds and one dozens of huckaback napkins with the tablecloaths belonging to them and alsoe the best of my wearing apparel except a brown camblet gown and pattisse which I give to Hellen White, and all my old apparel I give to ye poore at the discretion of my executrix". So in 1740, Thomas Green lived in Claverley, William Green was an apprentice in Newcastle, and Elizabeth Green lived with Sarah Pickton.

William's brother Thomas was shown as being of Claverley in Sarah Pickton's will of 1738. As the oldest Green son, Thomas, likely inherited most of John and Elizabeth's belongings. Later in the year that John and Elizabeth Green died, eighteen-year-old Thomas married Mary Whistons in October of 1730. Their children were christened in Claverley: John (1731), Elizabeth (1732), Mary (1734), Ann (1736), Ann (1739), Thomas (1741), Margaret (1747), and Richard (1751). Richard later became a baker like his grandfather. Thomas was listed in rent rolls from 1740-1760. In 1775 his name was lined out, and Richard Green was listed for that property. Thomas died and was buried 1771 in Claverley. His will identified him as an innkeeper.

John and Elizabeth had the following children:

1. Thomas, christened 26 June 1712 in Trysull.
2. John, christened 1 May 1714 in Trysull.

3. Francis (male), named in administration of father in 1730.
